Cairo and the Mediterranean, then the Red Sea to finish - no Nile cruise needed

From: 925 USD per person

Overview

This itinerary skips the south entirely - no Luxor, no Aswan - and instead pairs Cairo in depth with Alexandria on the Mediterranean coast, before finishing at an all-inclusive resort in Sharm El Sheikh. It suits travelers who've already done a Nile cruise on a previous trip, or who simply want history and Red Sea relaxation without the extra days a southern loop requires.

Nights in Cairo are spent in boutique guesthouses - modest outside, comfortable and characterful inside - before your all-inclusive Sharm resort takes over for the back half of the trip.
