

cairo-nile-cruise-8-days

Cairo's monuments, an Abu Simbel dawn, and three nights sailing the Nile

From: 1250 USD per person

Overview

This 8-day loop starts and ends in Cairo, with a sleeper-train journey south bookending three nights aboard a Nile cruise ship between Aswan and Luxor. Along the way, Abu Simbel, Kom Ombo and Edfu round out the classic temple circuit, before an overnight train brings you back to Cairo for a final day among its museums and old quarter.

As on every TutVoyages package, nights on land are spent in small boutique guesthouses rather than international chain hotels - plain outside, comfortable and characterful inside - with home-cooked local meals in place of hotel buffets, and a single private Egyptologist guide with you throughout.
